A Symposium on Irish Artists' Moving Images hosted by the Irish Artists' Film Index

October 28th 2021 at Project Arts Centre,

Temple Bar, Dublin 2.

10.00am to 5.00pm

This is a free event

Booking here: Catalytic Intersections

To celebrate its 2021 rebranding, Irish Artists' Film Index (formerly the MExIndex) is hosting its first daylong symposium. The presenters will explore and contextualise aspects of Irish artists' moving images (IAMIs), providing a broad overview on how they interact with other visual art forms.

Presentations

Documentary and IAMIs: Fiona Marron

Performance and IAMIs: Áine Phillips

Cinema and IAMIs: Michaele Cutaya

Installation and IAMIs: Meadhbh McNutt

Moderated by Marysia Wieckiewicz-Carroll

This symposium will be of interest not just to those involved in experimental film and artists' moving image, but also to anyone curious about the visual arts and the issues, opinions and investigations they provoke. The papers will be published in book form and launched at the symposium.
